AGING IN PLACE – CREATING A PLAN FOR A LIFETIME WORKSHOP MAY 4

As we age, many of us hope to be able to continue to care for ourselves as long as we can. This spring, the City of Burnsville will host a seminar for seniors and their loved ones demonstrating how to “live the live you want” as needs change.

What: Aging in Place – Creating a Plan for a Lifetime
Who: Older adults, loved ones and caregivers
When: Wednesday, May 4 | 10-11:30 a.m.
Where: Burnsville City Hall | 100 Civic Center Parkway
Cost: FREE

A panel will provide tips to help participants proactively plan for aging in place. The workshop will also include resources and topics such as:

- Financial/Legal
- Livable Environments
- Health/Wellness

This workshop is sponsored by the City of Burnsville and Burnsville Senior Center.

Registration is required. Registration deadline is Monday, May 2. Register online at www.burnsville.org/recreation (click “Online Registration”), by phone at 952-895-4500 or at the Recreation Office at Burnsville City Hall.
