BURNSVILLE 2018 BUDGET PROCESS UNDERWAY

Residents Invited to Participate in Public Meetings

For residents and business owners in Burnsville, understanding how the City provides services, sets priorities and spends tax dollars is important. Just like any household, the City of Burnsville sets an annual budget prioritizing services such as police, fire/emergency response, streets and parks.

Work has already begun on Burnsville's 2018 budget. The City will once again hold a number of public meetings to discuss the tax levy, services and priorities.

Meetings on the 2018 Budget

(Dates Subject to Change)

Tuesday, Aug. 15:	Discuss possible level for the maximum property tax levy
Tuesday, Sept. 5:	Adoption of the maximum property tax levy
Mid-October:	Video "Budget Open House" available online
Tuesday, Oct. 24:	Department presentations
Tuesday, Nov. 14:	General Fund and Property Tax Fund discussion
Tuesday, Nov. 28:	Capital and Enterprise Fund discussion
Tuesday, Dec. 5:	Consider adoption of the 2018 budget

All City Council meetings begin at 6:30 p.m., are cablecast live and replayed on Burnsville Civic Television Channel 16/HD 859 (for cable subscribers) and streamed online at www.burnsville.tv/live.

Residents are encouraged to participate by attending meetings, or offering questions/comments to City staff at www.burnsville.org/budget.
