Our guest speaker, R.T. Rybak has great experience in the development of internships. Before leading The Minneapolis Foundation, Rybak served as executive director of Generation Next, a coalition of civic, business, and school leaders focused on closing the educational opportunity gap in Minneapolis and Saint Paul. Prior to that, he served as mayor of Minneapolis from 2002 to 2013.

Since 2016, R.T. Rybak has been serving as President and CEO of The Minneapolis Foundation. He oversees the management of nearly $700 million in assets and the average annual distribution of more than $50 million in grants.

Rybak is the author of "Pothole Confidential," a memoir about his 12 years as mayor of Minneapolis.
