This year the Retro 5K has been approved as an official “Community Event” by the City of Burnsville, and Burnsville Mayor, Elizabeth Kautz will serve as honorary emcee for the event.

This is a fun run and walk for all ages. Pets and strollers are welcome. All registered 5K participants receive a neoprene insulated water bottle. Runners are invited to come dressed in fun, retro attire to win a prize. New this year is the 1K Family Fun Run, which includes games, crafts and prizes.

Burnsville Women of Today is a service organization dedicated to making our communities a better place for all. Our service projects involve donating time and raising funds for local, state, and national non-profit organizations. Our Youth of Today Scholarship benefits local high school students in their pursuit of higher education.
