

Celebrating 50 Years!
1964-2014

Burnsville: Then and Now

Committed Fire and Medical Service in Burnsville.

Burnsville's fire service was provided by the Savage Volunteer Fire Department until 1968, when Burnsville experimented with a combined "Public Safety Department." In 1981, police and fire were once again separated. In 1984, the department began providing ambulance and emergency medical services to the community. Today, all personnel are trained as firefighters and paramedics.

Place
Stamp
Here
